
Kavi, Kahaniyan aur Dilli
By Rishi
(Watch in landscape for better experience)

This is in Delhi
but you didn't know that,
did you?
There are so many stories
you don't know

Hello,
I am Rishi and I tell stories and I wish to go on walk around Dilli with you telling you about this lively museum of stories and my own characters chale?

For Example,
young miss Metcalfe used to eat mangoes up here (Cardio queen)

She's the Diva

Orrrr...

Or Razia, was popularly elected as the queen here like Fair elections? What?

This is the first Dargah of Delhi and just behind it is the empty grave of the last emperor of Delhi

Now,
What stories do I have for you?

Qutub,
it's Mehrauli
and how it was never deserted

From Jain temples to British holidays and now "A ❤️ V" inscriptions

Mehrauli: Sufi, Raw and Unseen

A walk through the streets witnessing how real and present the 'stories' are

The tragedy of Humayun and Partition paired with real anecdotes of Partition Refugee camps listen to the troublesome and oddly funny Jethalal kind of life of Humayun

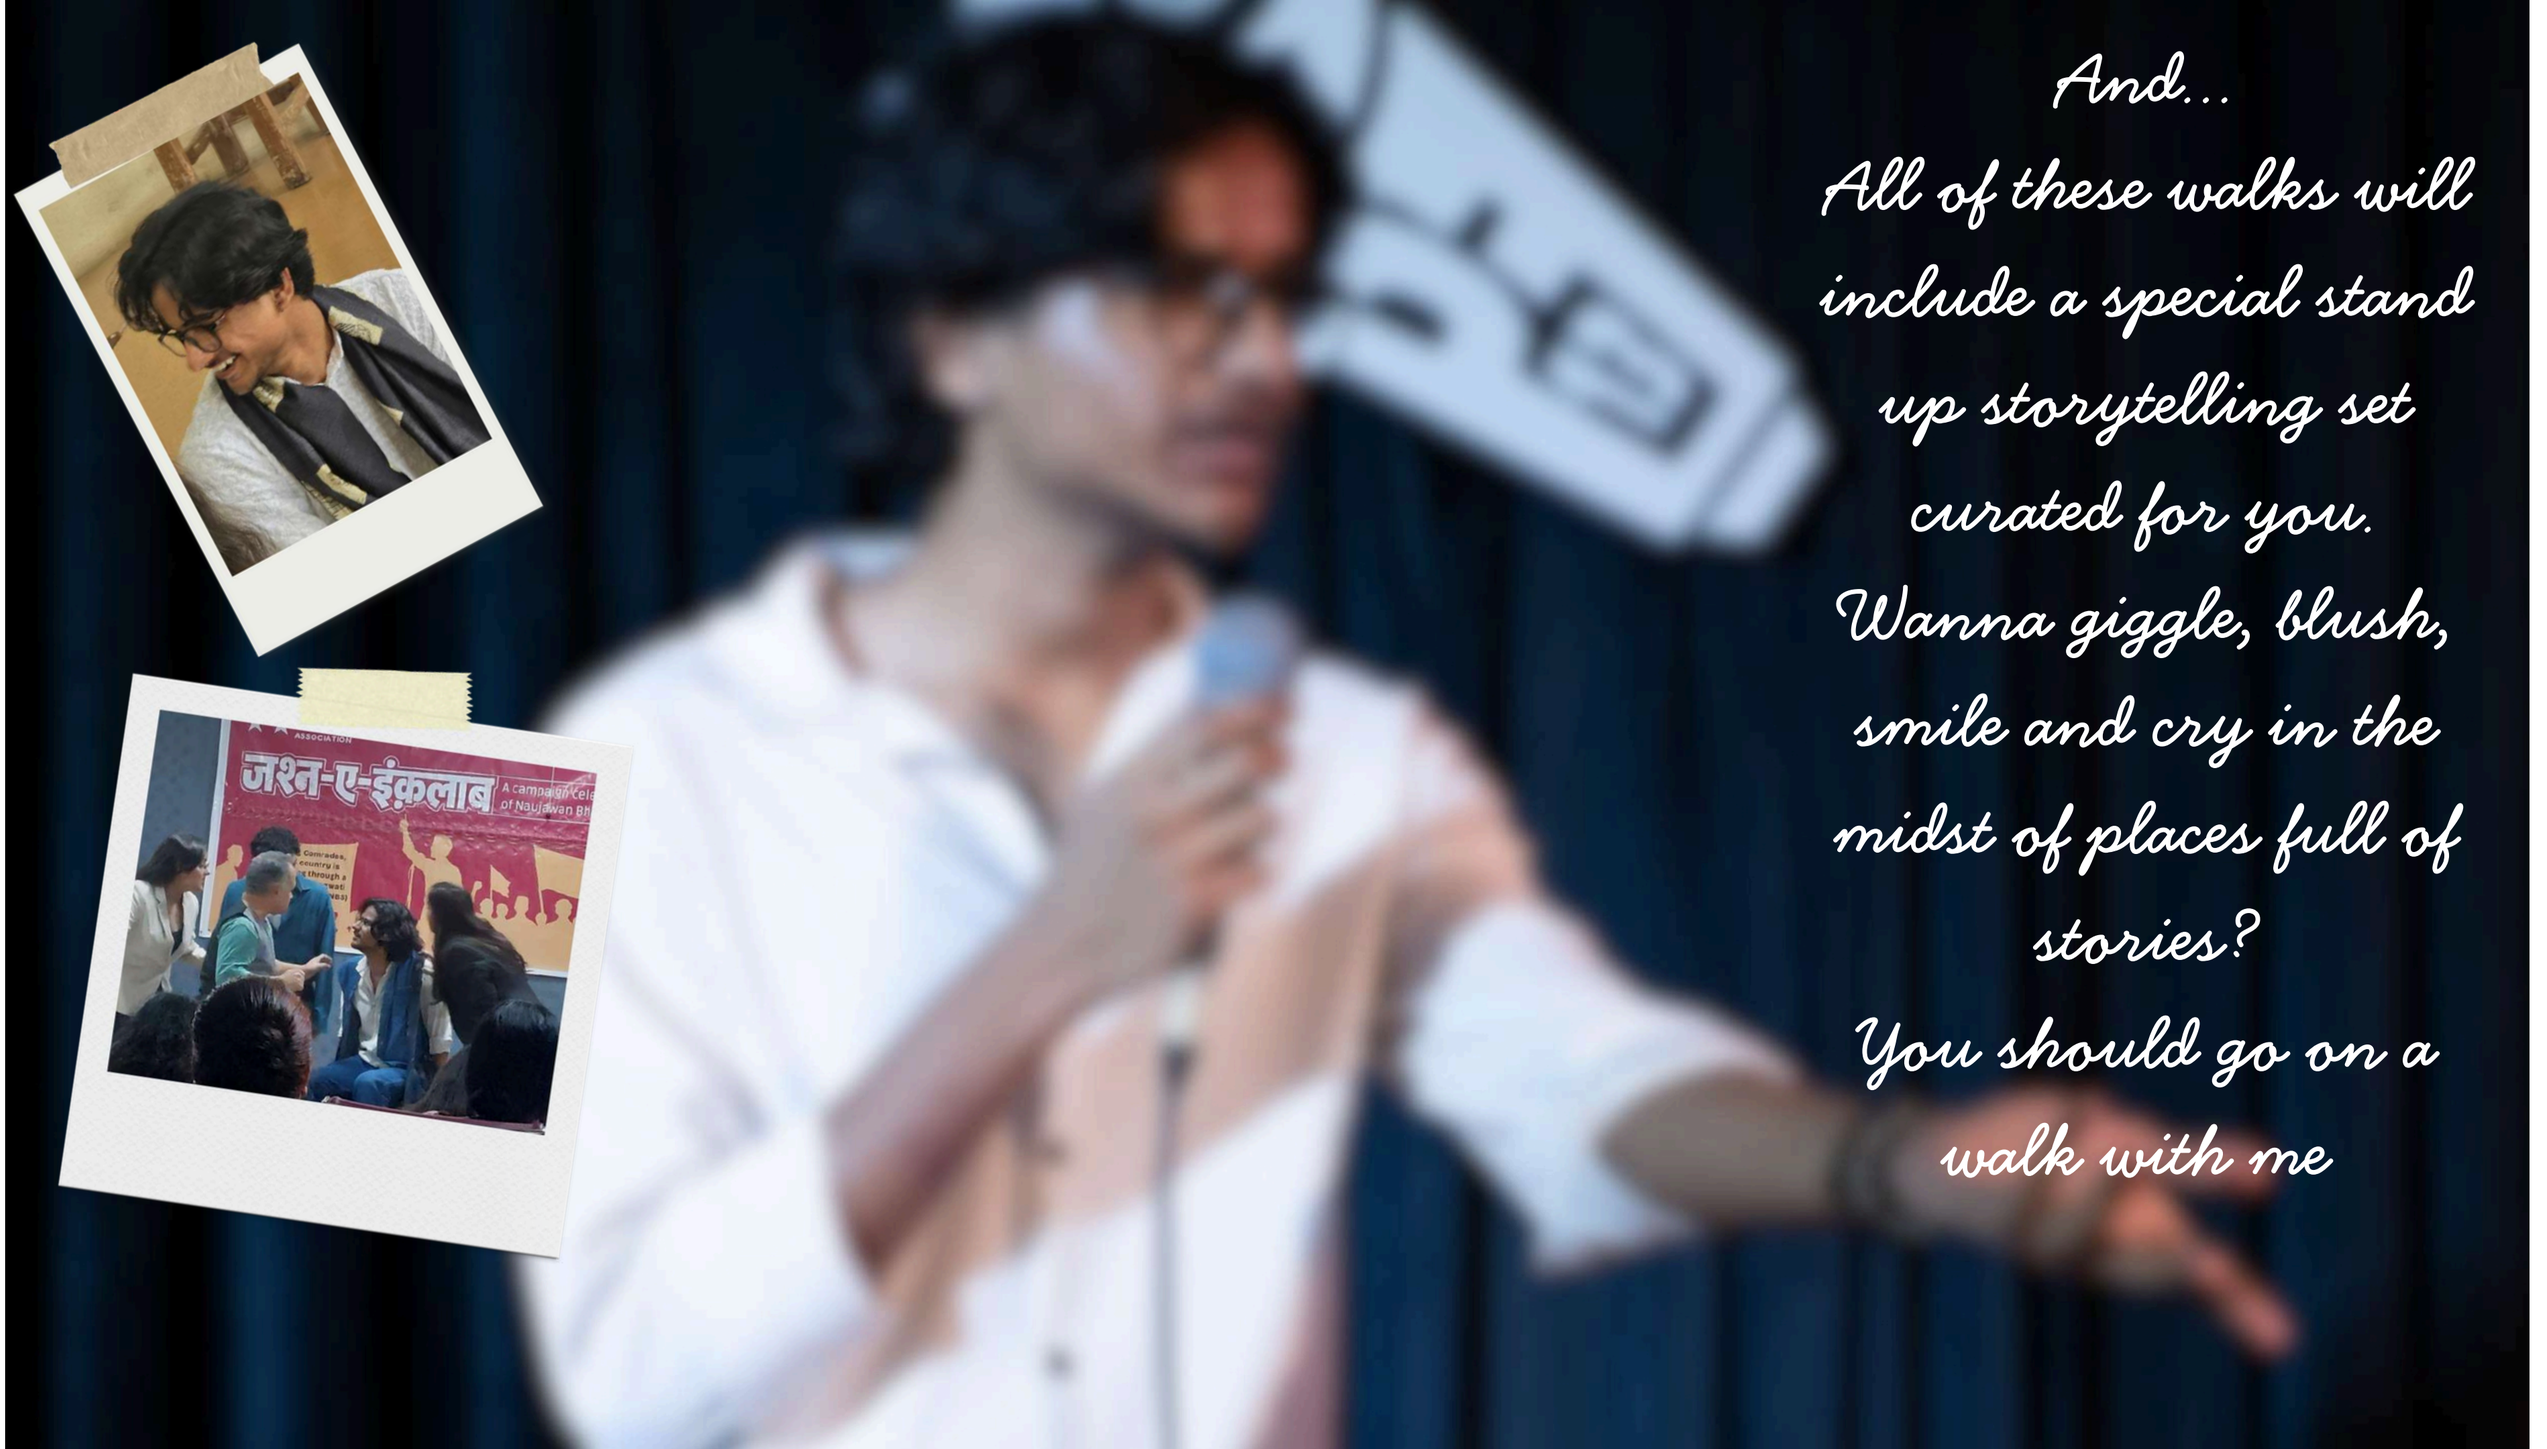

From Capital to British barracks and beyond: Tale of Lal Quila

Get to know the place which is architectural marvel, where a king danced in front of an invader and where British crushed the Mughals

'Gar firdaur Bur-e-zamin ast hamin ast-o hamin ast-o hamin ast

And...

All of these walks will include a special stand up storytelling set curated for you.

Wanna giggle, blush, smile and cry in the midst of places full of stories?

You should go on a walk with me

Now, all that's left before we sit like this together on winter afternoons is a phone call make that phone call now on

+91 9958702062 (Rishi)

+91 93101 05538 (Kavyansh)

or mail us at helloantaraan@gmail.com

Sirf tumhara,

Kavi

Kavi ko intezar nahi karate...

